<sup>i</sup> Judge Christine Clark was elected to the Supreme Court, thus creating a vacancy in Family Court. The vacancy will be filled by election in November 2013 for a full ten year term.

<sup>ii</sup> Matthew Martin was appointed to fill the vacancy created when Angelo Santabarbara was elected to the New York State Assembly. He will serve until the end of 2013, and in November 2013 a legislator will be elected to complete the remainder of the unexpired term, which expires at the end of 2015.

<sup>iii</sup> Joan B. Menhinick resigned, term ends at end of 2013, elective office thereafter abolished by local law approved by electors of Town of Glenville. Patrick T. Aragosa was elected to fill the remainder of the Menhinick term.

<sup>iv</sup> Nicola DiLeva was appointed to fill the vacancy when Matthew Martin resigned in February 2013. She will serve until the end of 2013, and at the election in November 2013 a board member will be elected for a full four year term.

<sup>v</sup> Marion Porterfield was appointed to fill the seat vacated by Gary McCarthy (elected 2009) and was subsequently elected to fill the remainder of the term, expiring at the end of 2013.

<sup>vi</sup> Rory Fluman was appointed and then elected to fill the remainder of the term vacated by Cathy Gatta (elected 2010).

<sup>vii</sup> Appointed to fill the vacancy created when Gayle Gifford was elected Mayor. This position is up for election in 2014.
