Livingston County at a Glance

Livingston County was created from Ontario and Genesee counties on February 23, 1821, and is named in honor of Chancellor Robert R. Livingston who helped write the Declaration of Independence.

After the Revolutionary War, people from New England, Maryland and Pennsylvania came to settle the Genesee River Valley bringing their knowledge of agriculture and methods of raising cattle and sheep. They built flour and grist mills on the numerous small streams and on the Genesee River. The most prominent of the settlers were the Wadsworth's from Connecticut who came in 1790 to the Seneca Indian village of Big Tree, now Geneseo, the County Seat.

Growth of population came with the completion of the Genesee Valley Canal (1840 – 1872), with the expansion of railroads, and with health spas, which reached their height of popularity in the 1850's.

The County is home to the State University of New York at Geneseo and the Genesee Valley Hunt one of the oldest organized fox hunts in the United States.

Ideally located in western New York, Livingston County has some of the most valuable land in the state. Always known for its prolific crops, agriculture is still the main industry, producing large quantities of wheat, potatoes and dairy products. Salt has been an important industry for over 100 years and continues today at the American Rock Salt Company, L.L.C., which is the largest operating salt mine in the United States.

Livingston County's scenic beauty includes a portion of Letchworth State Park, the "Grand Canyon of the East," that was formed by the Genesee River and is one of Livingston's most outstanding features. The Mt. Morris Dam built in 1952 provides flood protection for the Genesee River valley.

Livingston County was home to many prominent persons, among them two presidents, Millard Fillmore and Chester Arthur; Revolutionary War patriot Daniel Shays; and pioneer Nathaniel Rochester. Clara Barton organized the First Chapter of the American Red Cross in 1881, and native son, Francis Bellamy authored the Pledge of Allegiance in 1892.

Governed by a 17-member Board of Supervisors, including one member elected as Chairman, Livingston County is also served by our County Administrator who fulfills the duties of Budget Officer and Administrator to all county departments.
